CANADA FILM DAYS FESTIVAL 2013

Seventh Annual "Canada Films Days Festival" Launches at the Princess Cinemas!

Waterloo, Ontario, May 2-8, 2013 --

Waterloo's Canada Film Days Festival is an annual showcase of upcoming Canada Cinema uniquely programmed by Princess Cinemas to celebrate Canadian films.

8 Feature Films.

5 producers/directors/actors will be attending screenings.

The 7th installment of this local initiative is meant to showcase & celebrate homegrown Canadian feature film talent from across the country.

Award-Winning cyber-bulling film BLACKBIRD to launch this years Canada Film Days Festival!

Producer - Kitchener native David Miller - and co-star Michael Buie will attend opening night.

All screenings during the 7 day festival will feature speakers, community partners and Q & A's.

TVO Host and producer Thom Ernst will be on hand opening night on May 2nd to kick off the 2 opening films BLACKBIRD and BLOOD PRESSURE!

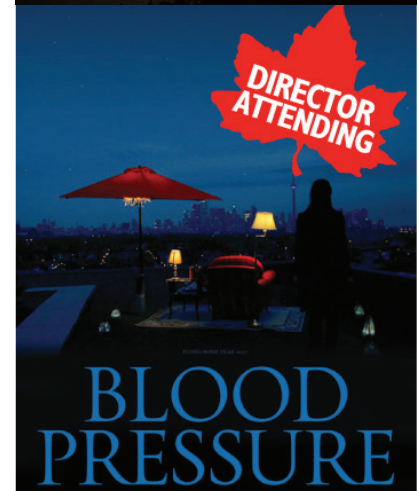

The Festival was born out of the 28 years of consistent art house programming at the Princess Cinemas, which features a wide assortment of films from around the world, week in and week out. Canadian films are just part of the mix we offer. CFD Festival lets us shout it out loud for this one week - Canadian films are great - come out and see why!

Tickets can be purchased at the door.

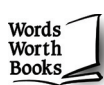

Online tickets are available for the 2 opening night screenings of BLACKBIRD and BLOOD PRESSURE.

More information at www.canadafilmdays.ca

Opening night will feature an after screening party at Ethel's Lounge in Uptown Waterloo.
